To the Sun: An inquiry develops the fact that a large majority of the Negroes of Kansas City do not carry any insurance whatever on their household goods. When their personal property is destroyed by fire the loss is total. This condition does not exist solely on account of ignorance or shiftlessness, on the part of our people. IT IS A FACT that few companies will insure goods belonging to Negroes. The Civic League is going into this matter thoroughly and expects to publish a list of all companies in Kansas City who do not discriminate against us. A report was made to the League at a special meeting at Y. M. C. A. Tuesday evening.

THEY SAY

—That reputation, not gas, counts these days.

—That coarse birds don't have fine feathers. No indeed.

—That many a man who saw 1919 come in will not see 1919 go out.

—That when a man rises, he seldom remembers the friends he had before.

—That if a certain young woman isn't careful, something is going to happen.

—That the man who hires an assassin, is as guilty as the wretch who commits the deed.

—That misery sure loves company. That's the reason why "birds of a feather flock together."

—That there isn't an old maid in town who will admit she can remember the Spanish-American war.

—That when it comes to "swell head" Kansas City has two or three Negroes who are in the first class.

—That the soldiers just returning are in much demand as husbands because the girls say they at least know what a command means.

—That when you hear a big greasy skunk "cussing out" Betty and Sam it's a sure sign they've hit him in a tender spot. Sho' have.

—That there are some skeletons struggling desperately to get out of certain closets in this city. Well they'd better keep them in.

—That the way Negroes are burning gasoline this summer in old K. C. means either a famine or prohibitive prices this fall. Well burn her while she's good boys.

They say that if you will call West 380, you'll hear something to your advantage as well as for your health.—Adv.
